Our Mission: To Seek, Know, Love and Serve Christ in all Persons and in all Creation

RAMBLINGS from the Liturgy and Pastoral Care

Greetings from sunny Arizona. I hope by this time you are getting some sunshine too. We found a church closer to us this year. It is called St. Barnabas on the Desert. It is a beautiful church with a colorful mural all across the front of the church. Maybe the colors of a desert sunset. There is a thirty member choir and a sixteen member staff. The staff includes a rector, associate rector, retired rector, deacons, curate, etc, etc. Of the four ordained staff, two are women. Yes! They use an all inclusive bulletin, just like us. They pass the peace and it takes about two minutes! Not like us! The psalms are read responsively, no beautiful baritone to sing and lead us. The music is inspiring—but no one dances in the aisle. Announcements are, well, just announcements. Not delivered with a style designed to inform and entertain! We did attend the Shrove Tuesday pancake supper and Ash Wednesday services. The people are friendly and make us feel welcome. I feel grateful and blessed to have such a beautiful place to worship. But it is not Holy Trinity. I miss you all. See you in May.

Pancake Supper Thank You From the Coordinators

The Shrove Tuesday pancake supper was a success with lots of parishioners pitching in.

Thanks go out to Carole Johnson for undercroft set-up and for inviting your extended family members to gather and enjoy. The tables looked very inviting.

Thanks to our three pancake flippers: Erik Strand, Andrew Strand and Tessa Walls. You turned out hundreds of golden brown cakes.

Thanks to Flossie Knutson for providing the de-caffeinated coffee and bussing tables.

Donna Day headed up the beverage service making sure hot coffee was readily available. Thank you Donna for coming early to take care of this.

Karen Walls pitched in on prep day and served in the kitchen. She saw what needed to be done and took care of it. You are a blessing and we are thankful for this.

Jackie and Gerry Guimond brought music, read the prayer, and Jackie waited on and bussed tables. Thank you to you both.

Thanks to Lee Grim for publicizing the event to bring in a crowd that doubled last year's numbers, for providing an explanation and prayer about the meaning of Shrove Tuesday, and for fetching ice and extra syrup.

Thanks to Samantha Crossley for bussing tables and greeting pancake eaters.

With a smile and up to her elbows in dish suds, Jeannie Strand took the longest shift starting with the prep pans and finishing the very last plate. Thank you for all that labor.

Our parishioners, friends and neighbors enjoyed the pancake supper. Appreciation and thanks are extended to all who made this event possible.
