Our Mission: To Seek, Know, Love and Serve Christ in all Persons and in all Creation

Ramblings from the Sunday School.....

Submitted by: Rev. Melanie Mattsen

Just when all the glitter was finally vacuumed up, we started Sunday School again!

Because we are blessed with thoughtful and creative youth, we are also blessed with more ideas than time and our plans may not all come to fruition as quickly as we would like but I thought this would be a good time to share them with you all.

THE ROOM

After the flooding last spring our room looked stark and bare, so we have plans to do a bit of painting as soon as we are able to open the windows for ventilation. We will be inviting folks to lend a hand (or handprint) to our work at some point. We would also like some artwork for our walls, posters, nature scenes, thought-provoking sayings etc...

THE GARDEN

We also plan to finish up our garden space outdoors by painting the wooden box, doing a bit of stenciling, and adding some mulch. If funds allow, we would like to see about adding another box and a bench, but that is on the list of future plans. I do have some hostas that need to be divided so may be adding them.

FUN WITH POWER TOOLS

Our other big project is to build an outdoor food pantry. I'm jumping the gun as we don't have a plan to bring to the vestry yet, but somehow, somewhere we will make it happen. This is Linnaea's idea and is putting "let not the needy, O Lord, be forgotten" into practice. Those lines from Morning Prayer have resonated with me since childhood.

I am so grateful to have this time with our youth. I watch Emma learning from Linnaea and think she couldn't have a better role model. When I started this, I wasn't sure exactly how to do the job, but Gavia and Tyler helped me realize that what I thought Sunday School was supposed to be and what worked for us were two different things. When I serve as a Deacon on the 4th and 5th Sundays, Linnaea takes over as teacher to Emma.

I guess we're all students and teachers in this together.

Peace, Mel
